Our Mission Statement

We, the members of the First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, Colorado, are a congregation who trust and obey Jesus Christ. As such, we are a body that takes seriously the mission of the Church. Therefore, we, as a Church and as individuals, seek to provide an inspirational presence in this community, recognizing spiritual needs, and reaching out with Christian teachings and service to all age groups, sharing God's love in the world.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

* CALL TO WORSHIP from Psalm 8

L: O God, our God, how glorious is your name in all the earth!

P: Your glory is sung by all of your creation!

L: When we look to the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, we wonder --

P: Who are we that you care for us and for this world?

L: You are the God of life,

P: crowning us with glory and honor to serve you all our days.

All: O God, our God, how glorious is your name in all the earth.

CALL TO CONFESSION

We all sin daily, in thought and word and deed. As we come into God's presence, we acknowledge how we have rebelled against our King and seek his forgiveness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

In this maze of life, we have often run headlong in any direction which offers a faint glimmer of hope. We rush by others in our hurry to find our own way. We seldom stop to consider our beginning in your gift of life, and our future in your gift of new life. Forgive our aimless thinking, doing, and speaking.

In this maze of life, we sometimes sit in a corner alone and, unable to speak or act because we have lost all hope, we become encased on ourselves, consuming our inner life and becoming empty. Forgive our blindness to your presence as our Creator, as our Companion, and as the One who walked this way from birth through death to a resurrected life.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

L: Our God brings new life to the desperate.

P: We can face the new day with courage

All: Even our lives can change and be changed in hope. Alleluia! Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

We offer ourselves with our gifts, confident that you have a purpose for them and for us. Expand our limited vision to embrace new possibilities. We rededicate our lives at this table, where we receive Christ's body – the bread of life. May our offerings reach beyond the barriers of our former thinking and doing. In the Spirit of Christ, we would pray and live. Amen.
