Our Mission Statement

We, the members of the First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, Colorado, are a congregation who trust and obey Jesus Christ. As such, we are a body that takes seriously the mission of the Church. Therefore, we, as a Church and as individuals, seek to provide an inspirational presence in this community, recognizing spiritual needs, and reaching out with Christian teachings and service to all age groups, sharing God's love in the world.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

* CALL TO WORSHIP (fr Psalm 111)

L: Praise the Lord! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

P: Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who have pleasure in them. Full of honor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

L: He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and merciful.

P: The works of his hands are faithful and just. He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever.

All: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all those who practice it. His praise endures forever!

CALL TO CONFESSION

God's Spirit is alive and at work among us, gathering us for worship, calling us to return to God through prayer, praise and confession. Let us pray together.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Loving Father, we come to you. We confess that our perspectives need reformed: Although it may seem that grasping power solves problems, that getting our way is the one path to joy. You teach us to believe differently.

We live in a world that overflows with reactions that alienate us from you and each other: resentment, outrage, despair, dread. You teach us to react differently.

We can easily slip into seeing our neighbor as our enemy, our opponents as problems to be solved. You teach us to see differently.

We sometimes turn from engaging constructively in the real problems of our world, seeking safety in withdrawal, curled up on ourselves, cold as stone. You teach us to turn toward need, to open our hearts, to engage faithfully.

Empty us of fear and fill us with your peace.

Empty us of rage and fill us with your gentleness.

Empty us of despair and fill us with your hope.

Empty us of contempt and fill us with your patient understanding.

Empty us of our need to control and fill us with persistent confidence in your provision.

As we interact with friends, enemies, and challenging neighbors this season...

May we be slow to speak and quick to listen.

May we seek to understand, even when we do not agree.

May our words and demeanor be humble and gentle,

Christ, as a Light, illumine and guide us. Apart from you, we can do nothing.

Amen.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

L: "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

P: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and freed. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

You give with open hands, Most Generous God, sharing gifts as seed to sow. We gather these offerings, asking only that they might take root and flourish — to tend your Kin-dom, to nurture your beloved community. Let our acts be not merely ritual but a commitment: a shaping of the world in your image, one generous gesture at a time. Amen.
