PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

In a world of unlimited discoveries, we confess our lack of discovery in the sublime and the beautiful. In our hurry to achieve the outward, we forget the inward. In our comfort with the normal and the predictable, we lose the desire to discover and create. But we are here, Lord, in the silence of your sanctuary, to rekindle our hopes for ourselves through the message of your word in scripture and song. Help us to see the beauty that awaits discovery, and the love that needs nourishment. Bring to memory the life of our Lord that we may form life-fulfilling habits. Amen.
